EIGHT WIVES IN COURT

SAID TO HAVE HAD TWICE THAT MANY.

Arkansas Rancher Being Tried on a Charge of Multiplicity of Marital Arrangements.

(WNU News Service.)
Fort Worth, Tex., April 4.—With eight of his alleged 16 wives in the federal court, Ludie Arnold is being tried here for violation of the Mann act. Arnold is said to have wed all the women in the course of 15 years and neglected that little detail of divorce. Divorcees take up so much time, he says.

Arnold's attorneys fought for admissibility of testimony from only one wife on the claim the alleged crime was the same in each case. They were overruled.

Arnold is an Arkansas rancher about 45 years old. His mother is owner of valuable tracts in that state and she is attending the hearings. She put up a $3,000 cash bond for him. His marriages extend over the entire west, from cities in Illinois to California, and he with great difficulty recalled most of their names.

Hazel Hearn of Kingsville, Ia., testified that Arnold, when he courted and won her, always was shedding tears and wanted "a little wife to care for him."

HEAVY WEIGHT GIRL ELOPES

She Tips the Beam at 334 and is as Souful as if She Were A Sylph.

(WNU News Service.)
West Bend, Ia., April 4.—Miss Sophia von Loh, aged 26, weighing 334 pounds, eloped from West Bend with Joe Miller, who weighs 135 pounds, and the two have been married in Morris, Minn., according to reports reaching friends here.

Miller is a farmer, and he and his bride will live on a farm near Morris. The couple eloped in an automobile at midnight, when plans for their wedding were opposed by Miss von Loh's brothers.

$330 for Field Primer.
New York, April 4.—At the sale of the Alexander library, the Eugene Field items furnished spirited bidding. The rare "Tribune Primer," printed in Denver in 1881, sold for $330. "Symbol and Saint" sold for $42.50 and "Echoes From the Sabine Farm" for $85. The Edinburgh edition of R. L. Stevenson sold for $377, the highest price of the day.

Students Expel Ten.
Chicago, April 4.—After being tried by the student honor court, 10 students of the University of Chicago were expelled for dishonesty during quarterly examinations.
